

Induction Class of 2024

Matthew Belliston (Class of 2008)

- Captured the 2007 FAVC Championship in cross country
- Led the Eagles to the team crown the same year
- Qualified for the OHSAA State Championships as a senior; the first Milford athlete to do so in over 20 years
- Was named Milford's Male Athlete of the Year as a senior
- Also earned second team All-FAVC honors as a junior
- Owns the ninth-fastest championship time in school history (16:13), achieved at the 2007 FAVC

Championships

- Earned a scholarship and ultimately became a team captain for the BYU-Hawaii team

Savanna Termuhlen Brodner (Class of 2012)

- Captured consecutive FAVC Championships in both the 100 and 200 meters as a junior and senior
- Was named the FAVC Athlete of the Year as a senior
- Became the first Milford female to qualify for the OHSAA State Championships in a sprint event, finishing 15th in the 100 meters in 2011
- Owned the school record in both the 100 and 200 meters at the time of graduation
- Was a four-time Team MVP and the Eagle Award winner in 2010-11

- Went on to a successful track career at Wright State University, where she ranks in the top-10 in school history in several events, including the record for the indoor 4x400 meter relay