Week 3 Game Summary

Milford's defense was in fine form during Week 3 of the 2021 season as the Eagles yielded less than 200 yards of total offense and came up with a pair of turnovers in a 34-8 victory over Walnut Hills. MHS was particular stout against the run, holding Walnut to only 42 yards on the ground, including less than 10 in the first half.

Natwan Webster and Chase Duesing keyed the Eagle offense with two touchdowns apiece. Webster burst in from three and one yard out for the first two scores of the night. Duesing caught his first of two 20-yard TDs from Austin Hardin just before halftime, pushing Milford to a 20-0 halftime lead.

A long pass play keyed Walnut's first and only score in the early stages of the fourth quarter. But Milford sewed up the win with a Sawyer Copp rushing score and Duesing's second TD haul of the night.

Duesing had a big night, grabbing six catches from Hardin for 110 yards and the two scores. Copp needed just 10 carries to rush for a game-high 65 yards, while Webster added 51 yards.

Week 4 Game Summary

For the second straight week, Milford's rush defense was stout, this time limiting Turpin to just 55 yards, as the Eagles held on for a dramatic 20-13 win over the Spartans. The Eagles appeared to put the game on ice when Tofa Luani broke loose late in fourth quarter for a 60-yard run, but a Milford fumble gave the Spartans one final chance.

Trailing by seven, Turpin went 74 yards to inside the Eagle 30 in the closing seconds, but the Eagle defense tightened, giving Milford its first win over Turpin since 2018.

Luani was a beast on both sides of the ball, running for 145 yards and three touchdowns and recording a pair of sacks among six tackles defensively. Cam Zorowski had the game of his life on defense, finishing with four sacks and a forced fumble, along with a game-high 11 tackles.

The efforts of Luani and Zorowski were key in helping stifle Turpin standout running back Keenan Alcalde. Entering the night averaging 181 yards per game, Alcalde was held to only 64 on 19 carries. The Spartans managed just 18 yards on the ground in the first half as the Eagles built a 14-6 lead.

Week 6 Game Summary

Milford had a night to remember as the Eagles rushed for 456 yards and outlasted rival Loveland 48-34 in the annual battle for the Miami Township Victory Bell. Natwan Webster and Tofa Luani led the way, finishing with 182 and 180 yards respectively, with the latter finding the endzone for six touchdowns. The win extends Milford's win streak over Loveland to six straight.

The fireworks started early in the game with Luani finding the endzone for the first time and Loveland answering just 16 seconds later. Webster and Luani would each find paydirt before the half, but the Tigers answered both, sending the two teams into the half knotted at 21.

The back-and-forth continued in the second half with the Tigers getting within eight before Luani put the game away, rumbling 49 yards with just over two minutes remaining for touchdown number six and ultimately the dagger.

The Eagles nearly had a trio of 100-yard rushers as Sawyer Copp finished with 84 yards. Webster's 182 yards were the most by an Eagle since Cameron Kells ripped off 194 yards against West Clermont in 2018. The twin 100-yard rushers were the first by Milford since Dawson Slone and Chase Witte each went over 100 against Anderson in 2016.
